2009 CAMP SESSIONS

Sonoma State University, located just south of Santa Rosa and situated directly in the foreground of the Sonoma mountains, is a proud host to this NIKE Girls Basketball Camp.

Complete Skills Camp: This four day program is intended to help players, ages 12-18, develop athletically. The general skills camp at Sonoma is a great opportunity for young basketball players looking to develop and refine their fundamental basketball skills in a positive and well-organized learning environment.

CAMP DIRECTOR

Mark Rigby is in his twelfth season as head coach of the Seawolves in 2008-09. The winningest coach in SSU women's basketball history, Rigby has led his teams to an impressive 184-121 mark. In conference play, Rigby's Seawolves have amassed a record of 136-88.

Last season, Rigby guided the Seawolves to the NCAA West Regional tournament for the sixth time in 11 seasons. SSU won 20 games and advanced to the semifinals of the inaugural CCAA Tournament.

Rigby has delivered a winning season in nine of his eleven seasons at the helm, including three 20-win seasons. In his first two years at Sonoma State, Rigby led his team to back-to-back 20-plus win seasons, including a school-record 23 victories in 1998-99. His teams have participated in the NCAA West Regionals six times, a feat no other basketball coach has accomplished at SSU. A true student of the game, Rigby's squads emphasize teamwork, defense, and hustle.

In 1997-98, Rigby led SSU to their first-ever conference championship and what was at the time a school record 20 wins. In addition, the team enjoyed their first trip to the NCAA tournament. He capped off the season by being named NCAC Coach of the Year. Rigby was also honored as CCAA Co-Coach of the Year after guiding his 2001-02 team to a 21-8 record and the second round of the NCAA tourney.
